Announcement Yesterday, our Golden Eagles were hosting the 1st annual 3 on 3 Thorold Hockey Tournament across the street at the arena. There were 12 teams in total in attendance throughout the Junior and Senior divisions with various schools in the region. Our Junior Golden Eagles were in tough against stiff competition. Jakob Steele and Owen Mayhew did all they could to drive the offense as they scored 2 and 3 goals each throughout the tourney. Michael Leblanc played stellar and did all he could in goal to give his teammates a chance. In the end, they fell just short but was not for a lack of effort. THEN on to the Senior Golden Eagles! After losing their opening game to

Centennial, they came back strong, rattling off wins against Dunnville and Heritage where the goal scoring was led by the Burke brothers. This was good enough to earn them a spot in the Semi-finals, where they beat Westlane 3-2. Leaving us with a tough Championship game against Dunnville. Charles Champion played AMAZING throughout the tournament but he saved his best game for last where he helped propel his team to a 4-1 win and the ultimate goal of a Championship! Other strong performances were led by Jason Stewart, Kaitlyn Pressley, Connor Davidson, Andrew Dailey, Nicole Atwood, and Blair Dionne. Also a shoutout to our volunteer timekeepers who had to brave the cold the entire day, Kennedy Apold, Cam Klassen, Tyler Lambert and Jayme Porter.
