Last night in volleyball action the junior boys took it to the Governor Simcoe Redcoats defeating them in 2 straight games! The boys smashed, dug and served their way to their 3rd straight win of the season. Honourable mention goes to our 2 setters Maks Dmytryshyn and Jeff Kim for making their players look so good on the attacks! No practice today after school but you will have one on Tuesday after the long weekend.

Last night the senior boy's gritty defense and strong offense out powered Governor Simcoe in four games. Players of the match for the Eagles were Elijah Patcheson whose six consecutive serves dug the Eagles from 18-23 deficit in game 1 to help secure the win 26-24 and Braydon Harrietha stepped in on the right side and dominated. Congratulations on a total team win!
