 Looking for something to do at lunch? Why not watch a film? The Hot Docs film festival is still running in the library during lunch. We have a documentary double feature this Wednesday with the films Turning Tables and While I'm Here. Turning Tables is a 16 minute documentary about Pow wow techno pioneer Joshua DePerry, a.k.a. Classic Roots. While I'm here profiles everyday humans with extraordinary stories, we meet three incredible women in three short docs. Come and join us for some entertaining and informative films. See you in the library at lunch.
