Announcement Looking for something to do at lunch? Why not watch a film? The Hot Docs film festival is still running in the library during lunch. Friday May 3 Miss Smith will be showing the film Who Am I? Filmmakers ask 8-11 year-olds in two Kenyan primary schools what they understand about discrimination, tribe and religion. Come and join us for some entertaining and informative films. See you in the library at lunch.

Announcement

The Varsity Boys Soccer team kicked off its season this week with a tough, lop-sided loss on a cold, damp day at Sir Winston Churchill on Monday. Things looked a lot better yesterday, as the match was scoreless for the first 60 minutes against Eden. AHowever, after an unfortunate bounce or two, the score quickly changed at that point and our Golden Eagles couldn't catch up. Next action - Monday at Collegiate.

Announcement Yesterday, the Thorold Eagles girls soccer team played in their first tournament of the year. The girls stepped up and moved the ball effectively in all three of their games. The day started with a 2-0 win over Laura Secord, then continued with a 1-0 win over Collegiate and finished with a 3-1 victory over DSBN Academy. All the girls played very well and special shout outs go to our goal scorers, Elisa Weir, Katelyn Pressley and Grace Drummond. Great Job girls, lets keep it going in our tournament next week.
